COMMUNITY PANTRY

Sometimes our home food supplies can become low, especially in this frustrating time of Covid-19.

The Star City United Church through the Caring and Sharing fund is offering a Star City Community Pantry where you can come and select a few items which would be helpful to you from the donated food items available at the time.

The Community Pantry will be available at the Star City United Church once a week on Thursdays beginning February 25th, from 1-2 pm

You must wear a mask when you enter and adhere to the sanitizing procedures and distancing according to Government regulations.*

Donations of non-perishable food items (please check best before dates), and financial donations are welcome. Please drop off food items and or/money at the church. If the church is not open please leave food items at the Town Office and post mail money donations to:
